Kamchia (Bulgaria), September 9 - RIA Novosti. Approximately 11,000 students will be able to rest in Moscow in 2011 to a new year-round summer camp "Rainbow," which opened on Thursday as part of Moscow-owned recreational complex Kamchia on the Black Sea coast of Bulgaria, the Mayor said Moscow, Yuri Luzhkov.

Camp Rainbow - a second object in Kamchia, since 2008 the Moscow children rest in the same camp, located here "Longoz. "Rainbow" is intended to place about 600 children and 100 teachers. The premises are equipped with air conditioning, bathrooms, and equipped for children with disabilities. On the roof of the camp installed solar panels, which provide about 15% of energy. The camp is the so-called community center, concert hall, rooms for music and dancing, and bowling. Children, tourists in the fall, the program can pass the school in a specially equipped classrooms.

The opening ceremony was attended by Moscow Mayor Luzhkov and Prime Minister of Bulgaria Boyko Borisov, and other officials and dignitaries from both Bulgarian and Russian sides, reports RIA Novosti.

"I am convinced that what we are doing together with the Bulgarian government, local authorities, together we will mutually bring great benefit", - Luzhkov said at the opening ceremony. He added that the opening of the camp - a "proof of friendship between the Russian and the Bulgarian people, which has historical roots."

Moscow's mayor also said that in 2011 "Rainbow" will be able to rest about 11 thousand students in Moscow. According to him, at the present time, children have a rest in the camp, among them children from burned by wildfires villages. Previously, the city authorities said they would organize in the autumn holiday camp "Kamchia" for Moscow children who, during heat and smog in the summer of 2010 are in the capital.

According to Luzhkov, the summer camp will be given to all children, and in autumn there will be able to rest veterans.

Luzhkov also said that the opening of the camp provides an opportunity to find work 400 Bulgarian specialists.

"We also ask our fellow Bulgarians, all fresh, sunny came to the table to our veterans and children.

Luzhkov has shared his plans and told that within the complex Kamchia planned to construct a number of objects. Among them - a diagnostic and treatment center and spa (balneology - the science of treating mineral waters), school, sports center arena for athletics and swimming pool. In addition, the city authorities intend to build here is another camp for 600 "Black Sea".

"In 2011 we will complete the entire complex, it will be the most beautiful on earth" - "Luzhkov said. However, the official deadline of objects - mid-2012.

Bulgarian Prime Minister Borisov, in turn, thanked the authorities of Moscow.

"We thank you for your investment, which are about 200 million euros, with 400 jobs and for the fact that flow of tourists have increased by about 30%", - said Borisov.
