New camps for schoolchildren in Moscow opened yesterday in Bulgaria.

In the sanatorium and health complex Kamchia, which stretches along the Black Sea, it is the second. And now here all year round will have a rest for a thousand young Muscovites every shift. This land was the Moscow authorities have bought in the early 2000's. Reconstructed standing there third-rate hotel and turned into a camp Longoz. And already the past summer the first 400 students arrived in Moscow gain strength and health in Bulgaria. Executive Director Kamchia Stanka shops recalls: "The Bulgarians have appreciated investment capital. They said: while in the United States a hundred kilometers south of placing a military base, Russia is investing money in children's holidays." And yesterday opened another newly built housing for 600 people.
